DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The indicated allowability of claims 14-15 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Kick US 5,167,338. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 2, 14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kick US 5,167,338.

Kick '338 teaches a container lid comprising an open end (51), a lid body (5), a vertical wall (11) adjacent the opening, a portion of the lid (47) adjacent the vertical wall, a journaling portion and a journaled portion on the lid, and an interengaging protrusion and recess (9) on the journaled portions. See column 3, lines 29-32 teaching the snap fit of stud protrusion (43) and groove (9).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2, 14 and 16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DeParales et al. US 4,183,443 in view of Kick US 5,167,338.

DeParales '443 teaches a container lid comprising an open end (34), a lid body (11), a vertical wall (35/36/37) adjacent the opening, a portion of the lid (46) adjacent the vertical wall, a journaling portion and a journaled portion (14/22) on the lid, but fails to teach a protrusion engaging a recess between the journaled portions.

Kick '338 teaches an interengaging protrusion and recess (9) on the journaled portions. See column 3, lines 29-32 teaching the snap fit of stud protrusion (43) and groove (9). Such a resilient snap connection provides a more secure type of engagement than the type disclosed in DeParaless '443.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the lid of DeParaless '443, providing the interengaging protrusion and groove as taught by Kick '338, motivated by the benefit of providing a more secure connection to retain the rotating cover on the lid.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-17 as filed on 09 November 2005 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 10-13 are allowed.

8. Claims 3-9, 15 and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3727

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
